Hello, Miss Asuka

That's a bluff.

Heh...hehe...

He can't do that kind of thing.

She can't

That good natured old man can never have that kind of determination!

Your father must be Geppetto Boskonovitch!

Right now.

I will detonate the neutron bomb inside of my head.

And wipe out all living things within a 10 kilometer radius.

The radiation will spread to all directions, so you will never escape, even if you have transformed to the devil.

I thought you'd say that Kazuya.

Now look up at the night sky.

With a little threat and money, he easily developed many new weapons.

He's just a low life who only cares about his safety and honor as a scientist!

Oh I'd never thought about that.

Yes!

Just to kill the two of us...

You're going to wipe out all of Mishima-city?

What...

Thank you very much.

My father should be pleased.

You've heard it Miss Baskonovitch.

The ceasefire will be temporary.

Until we get our network back.

BUT.

If you want to come back and stop us, then do it.

There will be no mercy.

That will be all.

...I understand.

And accept.

What!

Who has?

The satellites are all gone.

Have you gone nuts?!

Heenee, I did it, I avenged my father!

Yes. I will come again to stop you.!

Or, I'll sue you all for trespassing.

Myself, the chairman of Mishima Zaibatsu,

Is just one of the competitors!

Huh. That's more like it.

Yep.

He has the eyes of a good boy.

As the representative of Mishima Sports Entertainment, I here declare,

The Final Stage of the Iron Fist Tournament

This time, not only will we have the elite fighters from around the world,

We will welcome participants from the public!

Under the latest rule, to be as close to an actual fight,

What we only ask for is the "will" for the "power".

This should be a tournament to seek out the strongest of all,

And of course...

We do not care about your size, or your age, or your gender.
